The SVA and LinkedIn have partnered to bring in-depth LinkedIn training to the student veterans of WashU!

Daniel Savage, Head of Veterans Program at LinkedIn, will be lead trainer. Daniel not only does outreach like this webinar series but also works with fortune 1000 companies to target veterans for employment through LinkedIn. Learn how companies use LinkedIn to find prospective employees and part of Daniel's webinars will be showing us how we can optimize our presence and network via LinkedIn to make sure we show up on the radar of the hiring managers. This will not be like any LinkedIn training you have ever had before.

Webinar 1: Optimizing Your LinkedIn Presence
Wed, Oct 4, 1:30-3:00pm
Description: Teach veterans how to make the most of their online presence. We will go into the sections of the profile that are critical to focus on, discuss content and translation of skill set, and illustrate how recruiters find members.

Webinar 2: Recruiting and Leveraging Your Network
Wed, Oct 25, 1:30-3:00pm
Description: Discuss networking as a concept and why you should do it. How to build the network you need to determine the next steps for your future and connect to opportunity.

Webinar 3: Finding The Way In: Your Internship and/or Job Search
Wed, Nov 15, 1:30-3:00pm
Description: Understand the companies you want to work for and their culture, and learn the process for using LinkedIn tools in conjunction with your network to build relationships at companies at which you seek to apply.

Webinar 4: Knowledge Management to Get and Stay Ahead
Wed, Dec 6, 7:00-8:30pm
Description: Understand the process of seeking and leveraging information that will help you develop and maintain skills, succeed in interviews, and stay at the top of your field using LinkedIn tools.

All webinars will be held in the Liberman Graduate Center Conference Room (DUC Suite 300). Please bring your computer as these webinars will be very interactive.
